Introducing the New Edwards

Edwards Signaling & Security Systems®

Everything you expect from us... and more.

Edwards Signaling is now Edwards Signaling & Security Systems. Our new, expanded name reflects our expanded product focus – now including fire and security systems for commercial and industrial markets. And while we're widening our product offering, we are also more committed than ever to remain your industrial and commercial signaling systems leader.

The proven product development process that gave you a steady stream of new industrial and commercial signaling products will now help your business even more. So you can expect incremental growth opportunities for wholesale distribution in all the markets we now serve.

Thanks for choosing to Signal Responsibly® with Edwards Signaling and Security Systems. Trusted since 1872, we're still your single source for Signaling Solutions®. And more.
